House Bill No. 1882, effective August 28, 2014, revised Section 105.666 – This statute states requirements for Trustee education. Several new subsections were added in addition to changing the prior requirement from two continuing education programs to a total of six hours each year. Routine annual presentations by outside plan service providers shall not be used to satisfy board member education or continuing education program requirements. The record of board member education shall include, but not be limited to, date, time, length, location, education material, and any facilitator utilized.
